Preaching Schedule

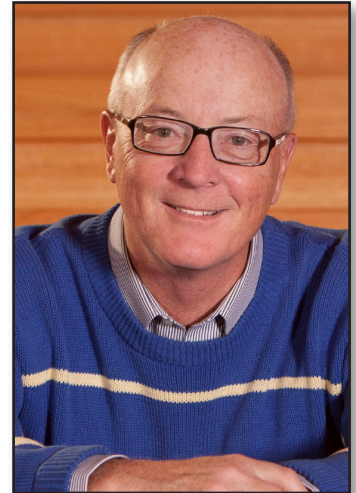

“Because Answers Only Exist To Questions...”

Get ready! Another exciting sermon series begins in January! Have you ever asked yourself why did Jesus ask so many questions in the Gospels? There are over 100 examples in the Bible of Jesus asking questions from all who gathered around him as he taught.

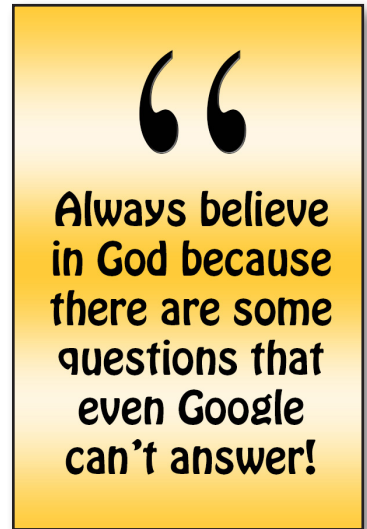

The favorite response of children to our explanations is, “Why?” Jesus knew once he got people talking, he could then sharpen the discussion with a zinger of a question like he did to Peter one day: “Who do you say that I am?” In the midst of so many words and thoughts, Peter finally answered: “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.” Peter’s confession became one of the most significant statements of faith in the Bible. Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God.

Jesus asked questions because he knew this is how we learn best! Christ taught that we are changed as much by what we say as by what we hear. I love the wisdom of this poster: “Always believe in God because there are some questions that even Google can’t answer!”

Beginning January 4 & 8, our new sermon series for the winter launches: Questions Jesus Asked That You Must Answer. You are invited to do your soul business each week in a fresh and compelling manner as we examine a new question Jesus is asking each of us. These are questions that only you can answer! Invite a friend or a neighbor who might be inspired by this series! Lou Holz confessed: “I never learn anything talking. I only learn things when I ask questions.” Let this new sermon series help you wrestle with many profound questions Jesus asks all his followers and that you must answer.

WHAT'S GOD UP TO IN WOMEN'S MINISTRY?

PRAYER AND MEDITATION

Chiseling

by Peggy Monsebroten

While working on the 17 foot statue of David, Michelangelo stated, "I saw an angel in the marble and I carved until I set him free."

I wondered if this is similar to what God sees and does with us. Somehow, he sees the good in us and chisels away until he sees more of his likeness and frees us from our bondage to sin. We are truly free when we accept his sacrifice at the cross. We're free from the bondage of sin, the hopelessness, uncertainty and worry of death. This carving into his perfect likeness is a lifelong process. We become more and more like Christ as he molds us. We're not stone and yet our hearts can be like stone.

"I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit in you, I will replace your stony heart of sin and put my spirit in you so you will obey my laws and do as I command."
~Ezekiel 36:26-27

This process here can be hard and painful and often beyond our understanding, if we just focus on the pain and circumstances. But if we keep our focus on God and his heart that is good all the time, he will help us get through every storm we encounter. It is wise to remember not to focus on our circumstances but focus on who God is.

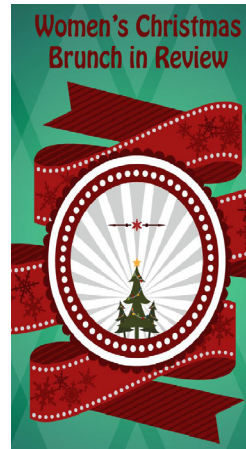

"Set your mind on things above and not on earthly things."
~Colossians 3:2

Dear Lord, thank you that you see us as redeemable children that you want to change into your image. You promise never to leave or forsake us so help us remember this when we feel alone and doubt because of life's hard circumstances. Amen.

Thank you to the women volunteers who decorated tables for the Women's Christmas Brunch on December 3 at the South Campus. SueAnn Berntson, Southern Gospel Recording artist, provided an inspiring program to the 440 women present. Gifts of baby products and over $1,100 were given to First Choice Clinic, Nokomis Childcare Centers and Churches United for the Homeless.

About 30 men cheerfully served the delicious meal to the women.

If God is Real, Then What?

That is the question we will explore together at IF:Fargo-Moorhead, a simulcast at the Avalon West Event Center on February 3-4. (Friday, 6:00-10:00pm & Saturday, 9:00am-5:00pm) We seek to gather, equip and unleash women to live out God's calling in their lives.
