

God is Infinite and All Powerful

Reflect

1. When you hear that God is infinite and all powerful, how does that make you feel?
2. What sort of questions come up in your mind when you hear that God is infinite and all powerful?

Read Your Bible

- Psalm 33:6
- Colossians 1:15-20

Apply God's Word to Your Life

1. Where else in God's story have you heard words that are like Psalm 33:6?
2. What is your take-away from this verse in Psalm 33?
3. How does this theme of the Infinite and the all-powerful carry through in Colossians 1:15-20?
4. How was Jesus involved in the creation? See Colossians 1:16.
5. Describe God using the words in v. 15-18. Then, describe God in v. 19 and 20. What is the tension here? (This tension is a good thing.)
6. When you tell others about God, how is it helpful to know that God is infinite and all powerful?
7. When you tell others about God, how is it helpful to know that God walked with us in Jesus?

Conclusion

When I look into the night sky and see the Milky Way, I am in awe. Each star is so distant that it is impossible to travel to their systems. And yet, there is a God who made all of this and more. Even the stars I see are a small part of this universe held together through the laws of physics. From the grandness of the universe that is billions of light years across, to the miniscule sub-atomic particles that make up matter itself, the mind of God created it and holds the universe, even you and me, together. In some ways this makes me afraid of such a powerful God who made heaven and earth. It is kind of like visiting Hoover Dam and realizing that in the power of the electricity there is much danger. There are plenty of caution signs to warn you of that truth. God chooses to relate to us in a very humble way and not with brute power. That way is through Jesus. The all-powerful God put on fragile human flesh to show us His love; to show us that we have nothing to fear; and that He is for us.

Pray

Father, You are mighty and good, great and kind. As we stand in awe of what You have made and the beauty of Your creation, help us to see the depth of Your love in Jesus and His cross. When we are fearful of You, help us to know the peace of Jesus. Bless us with faith that You have overcome the tragedy of sin so that we might be with You forever. In Christ Jesus' name we pray. Amen.
