

Come to Me More than Conquerors

Reflect

1. Describe a time you felt defeated.
2. Describe a time you felt fear.
3. Describe a time you had an unmet need.

Read Your Bible

- Romans 8:31-39
- John 15:5, 16:33

Apply God's Word to Your Life

1. What do you think it means that God is for us?
2. Do you think that God is for you? Why or why not?
3. When Paul writes in verse 32, "... how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things?" what do you think is included in the phrase "all things?" (reading the full chapter may help you answer this)
4. Why is it so easy to bring a charge against others?
5. What is an alternative to condemning someone else?
6. What do you think it looks like to the world around us to be a conqueror in Christ?
7. Are there any areas of your life where you may be condemning someone who may need love, guidance, and prayer instead?

Conclusion

There may truly be no greater news in this world than to know that God is for us. There are all kinds of voices we hear in this life that lead us towards feelings of fear, despair, defeat, condemnation, and the list goes on and on. Likewise, we have continuously chosen sin over the God of the universe in our daily lives. However, Paul reminds us that even amidst all the voices in this world that are against us, and even amidst our sin, our God, in Jesus Christ, is for us. In Romans 8:28, Paul reminds us that God has predestined us, called us, justified us, and will be faithful to glorify us in the coming Kingdom because of His insurmountable love for us shown in His Son. We are truly more than conquerors through Him who loved us. Therefore, if God is for us, who can be against us?

Pray

Heavenly Father, we thank you, once again, for the gift of Your Son, Jesus Christ. Today we acknowledge that because of Your great love for us, we not only can be forgiven of our sins, but can be considered more than conquerors through Jesus Christ who loved us. We ask today that You will continue to help us to live in response to this Good News in such a way that when people see the lives that we live, they would know that Jesus Christ is Lord to the glory of God the Father. Amen!
